

ANA VIEIRA LEITE - soprano

CV

Portuguese soprano Ana Vieira Leite is a laureate from the "Jardin des Voix" academy of Les Arts Florissants and started her 2021/22 season singing the title role in Händel's Partenope in the ensembles' tour through Europe under the baton of William Christie. Stages of this tour include the Lucerne Festival, the Müpa Budapest, the Philharmonie de Paris, Palau de Les Arts Reina Sofia Valencia and the Gran Teatre del Liceu Barcelona.

Reviews hailed Ana's performance as:

"The Revelation Ana Vieira Leite: In the title role, the Portuguese soprano Ana Vieira Leite. Aristocratic posture, rich soprano timbre, profound musicality and dramatic intelligence: An artist to discover."

"Start of a Promising Career: With her clear timbre in all ranges, the soprano Ana Vieira Leite as Parthenope, flies into the high register with great naturalness. Her formidable vocal agility does not prevent her from placing her voice with serenity. Her stage presence is more than obvious, moreover, she has all the confidence as an actress. She is undeniably an artist to follow closely."

Further highlights this season include concerts with ensembles Holland Baroque, in Utrecht and Den Haag, and Divino Sospiro, in Milan, Lisbon, Paris and Metz, as well as the role of the Angel in Luigi Mancia's Il paradiso perduto with the ensemble Le Concert de l'Hostel Dieu at the Auditorium Orchestre national de Lyon. A new collaboration with Les Arts Florissants takes her to the Opéra Royal at the castle of Versailles where she will sing L'amour in Mondonville's Titon et l'Aurore.

Ana Vieira Leite is particularly active in the field of Early Music and has sung roles such as Spes in Hildegard von Bingen's Ordo Virtutum, Une Bohémienne in André Campra's Les fêtes vénitiennes, La Musica in Monteverdi's Orfeo and Lidie in Rameau's Le temple de la gloire. She is a founding member of the ensemble O Bando de Surunyo, which is specializing in the interpretation of 16th and 17th century music.

In September 2019 she made her debut at the Grand Théâtre de Genève singing the soprano solo in Philip Glass' Einstein on the Beach and Clorinda in an adaptation for children of Rossini's La Cenerentola. On the concert podium she performed Gustav Mahler's 4th Symphony with Joana Carneiro and Gábor Takács-Nagy, Mahler's Rückert Lieder with Thomas Hauschild, and the soprano solo in Fauré's Requiem.

Ana Vieira Leite graduated from the Haute École de Musique de Genève (Switzerland) in 2020, where she obtained her Master's Degree in concert and received the "Ville de Genève" award for her outstanding work.

Prior to joining the Haute École de Musique in Geneva, Ana Vieira Leite began her musical studies at the Calouste Gulbenkian Conservatory of Music in Braga, Portugal, at the age of 6. She has a Bachelor in singing, a Postgraduate Degree in opera studies and a Master's Degree in artistic interpretation from ESMAE (Oporto).

In 2018 she won the 1st Prize of the “Concurso Internacional Cidade de Almada” and, in 2017, the 1st Prize of the “Prémio Helena Sá e Costa”. In 2020, she was awarded the 1st Prize at the "Concours International de Chant Baroque de Froville" (France), and, in 2021, the 2nd Prize of the "Prémio Jovens Musicos and the 1st Prize at the "Concurso da Fundação Rotária Portuguesa" (Portugal).

Ana Vieira Leite has the pleasure to have the support of the Gulbenkian Foundation (Portugal), the Fondation Mosesti (Switzerland) and the GDA Foundation (Portugal).

